

THE UNIVERSITY OF
MELBOURNE

The 2019 Indonesian Elections: Electoral Accountability & Democratic Quality

Asia Institute

Faculty of Arts

Public Event

Public Panel and Workshop Series 6-7 August 2019

Presented by Asia Institute - Indonesian Democracy Hallmark
Research Initiative (IDeHaRI)

The event brings together leading scholars and politicians from Indonesia and Australia to discuss the 2019 electoral campaign, the sources of power for contestants for public office, the functioning of Indonesia's electoral institutions and political system, as well as the prospects for the observance of rights under a second term Jokowi administration.

Registration is free but essential. Event details are as follows:

Tuesday 6 August

Public Panel: The 2019 Elections and the Future of Indonesian Democracy

Venue: Forum Theatre, Arts West Building, University of Melbourne

5:30pm-7:30pm

Grace Natalie is a chairperson and co-founder of the Indonesian Solidarity Party (PSI), formed in 2014. She ran as a candidate for the national legislature for PSI in 2019, receiving the most votes in her Jakarta electorate.

Dr Robertus Robet is senior lecturer in Department Sociology, Faculty of Social Sciences Jakarta State University.

Dr Kuskricho Ambardi teaches at the Department of Communication Science, University of Gadjah Mada. Co-authored book entitled Voting Behavior in Indonesia since Democratization: Critical Democrats (Cambridge University Press, 2018).

Wednesday 7 August

Workshop: The 2019 Indonesian Elections: Electoral Accountability And Democratic Quality

Venue: Lecture Theatre G08, Melbourne Law School

9:00am – 5:30pm

Speakers include Grace Natalie, Professor Vedi Hadiz and Professor Tim Lindsey.

Event Details

Date:
6-7 August

Time:
Please see event pages for further information

Venue:
Tue 6 August
Forum Theatre, Arts West, UoM

Wed 7 August
Lecture Theatre G08, Melbourne Law School

Enquiries:
mayacp@unimelb.edu.au

Bookings:
Bookings essential.

For event programs and registration please visit:

ideharipanel6aug.eventbrite.com.au
idehari7aug.eventbrite.com.au